TARIFF FIGHT TO-DAY. Speculations Relative to the Probable Result of Mr. Morrison's Motion to Consider the Tariff Bill. The tariff was the principla topic of conversation last night wherever public men congregate. The well-informed on each side express grave doubts as to the result. The Republicans and protection Democrate are somewhat more confident of the defeat of the motion to consider the Morrison bill than the revenue reform Democrats are of

than the revenue reform Democrats are of its success.

Mr. Hissock (Rep.) in reply to a reporter's question, said: "My impression is that it will be defeated by three or four majority. The actual strength against the Morrison bill, I think is three to six, but it is difficult to tell just how it will come out on account of absentees and failures to secure pairs.

Mr. James, of Brooklyn, who voted for consideration of the Morrison bill last seesion, would, Mr. Hiscock said, vote against consideration this time. There was a chance that they would gain other Republican votes. He had heard rumors that one or two Massachusetts Republicans would vote for consideration, but he was inclined to believe the reports would prove to be untrue.

Inclined to believe the reports would prove to be untrue.

Mr. McAdoo, who has been very prominent among the Democrats opposing consideration, said: "It will be very close, but we expect to win by a small majority. The motion to consider, I think, will be defeated, unless there is a break in the Republican ranks." He denied the report that the protection Democrats had made overtures to Mr. Morrison looking to consideration of the bill upon condition that a point of order should not be raised against the incorporation in the bill of Mr. Randall's internal revenue reduction proposition.

Gov. McCreary, of Kentucky (Dem.), who

Gov. McCresry, of Kentucky (Dem.), who has been active in endeavoring to secure consideration, said:

"I am bopeful to get up the bill, but I am not certain of it. The count we make is very close. I think there is a chance that it will be beaten by about five votes." Mr. Veele, Gov. McCreary said, would this time vote for consideration. "There is evidently a change," he added, "to a certain extent in the minds of those who voted against it before. They express a belief that revision ought to be made in the tariff, but still (with a slight pause), they won't consider the question now."

The protection Democrats held another conference at Mr. McAdoo's rooms at the Riggs House last night. Members who were present said that every state in which Democratic protectionists were to be found was represented and that all their men were accounted for, so that they knew their exact standing. They declined to state the precise number in their ranks. Messes, Muller and Sprigas, of New York, who are now absent, would be present to-day, they said, and would vote against consideration.

FARMERS VS. K. OF L. Bitter Feeling Growing Out of Efforts to Enroll Colored People in the Order. BALTIMORE, Mp., Dec. 17 .- The Sun has

Baltimorii, Md., Dec. 17.—The San has the following special from Columbia, S. C.:

The efforts of some of the organizers of the Knights of Labor in this state to enroll the colored people in the order has caused much bitter feeling against the order by the farmers. Some of the state newspapers are denouncing the movement in the strongest terms. Mr. W. P. Russell, state organizer of the Knights of Labor, in answering newspapers comments is bitter. He says: "In your gnorance you may think that mechanics and laborers are not American cliseous, and that the laborers in the rural districts of South Carolina see to be used as the lazy, intolerent men in these districts choose to dictate; that they are not freemen, and shall work for what pay you may choose to allow them."

Some papers advise the famers to "spot" all white men like Russell endeavoring to organize negro Knights of Labor, and to drive them from the neighborhood. These journals have advised that the legislature should appropriate more for the maintenance of the militia, as well-equipped soldiers will be needed if this organization goes on. This the legislature has done, and to further protect the farmers against the organization of the colored people living on their plantations the senate has pussed by a large majority, and the house will, doubtiess, make it a law, a bill providing that "it shall be deemed a couspiracy, and shall be a misdomenance for any persons unified organized, as sociated, or banded together to interfere by threats, force, or any other way with any contract between any employer and employe, whether such contract be evend or in writing, or to permit any person for them or in their name, or on bobalf of such union, association, organization, to prevent the excention of such contract, and each and every one convicted of this offense shall be a punished by in prisonmenor for not less than six months, or fined not less than excent on of such contract, and each and every one convicted of this offense shall be a wayed excention of such con the following special from Columbia, S. Some Old Cases That Are to Be Retried The Upward Movement in Stocks Assumed Larger Proportions—The Excitement of the Past Week in Wall in Washington. The claimants whose claims against the Venezuelan government were rejected by the Caracas commission in 1865 are greatly NEW YORK, Dec. 17.-The stock marke concerned at Gen. Blanco's postponement of the ratification of the convention for rehas been irregular and feverish throughout most of the day, but was generally weak in opening the Ceracas awards, and at the lu-timation in the President's message that further delay may be regarded as a recission opening the Ceracas awards, and at the totimation in the President's message that turther delay may be regarded as a recission

of the compact. The rejected claims, which are to be tried over again, amounted to more than $3,000,000 when they were presented to the Caracas commission, and they now amount, with interest at 5 per cent. for eighteen years, which is claimed under the convent'th of 1509, to more than $6,000,000. One atterney in New York, who has often been here slace 1870 laboring for a new convention, represents over a million in amount of those claims, and has made no secret of the fact that he has a contingent fee of 33 per cent. This is rather ominous, for it was quarrels between attorneys and clients about their respective shares of the awards that started the seandals which have beelouded the Caracas commission. One of the largest of those rejected claims was for the alleged discovery of a guano island. The amount claimed in that the case was $1,045,000.
The claiment, who is now abroad, has employed an able and well-known lawyer of this city to see whether he cannot obtain an award from the proposed new commission, which is to sit in Washington, and,
but for Gen. Blanco's tardiness, might now have been well on with its work. Another of the rejected claims, amounting with interest to $750,000, is thought to have an excellent chance of success, for since it was rejected by the old commission a claim of the same class has been allowed against Venezuela under one of its conventions with a European government.

It has probably been noticed in Venezuela that a prominent congressman—one of the meat active in promoting the new convention—has vouchsed, in an official report on the subject, for the genuineness and merits of some of the largest of those rejected claims, and it is surmised that Gen. Blanco, who reassumed control of the Venezuelan government last September, begins to see what some of the self-styled friends of Venezuela who have been clamcrigit in her name so long for justice the forenoon and stronger thereafter. There was heavy selling by London in the early morning of the grangers, Vanderbilt, Reading, and Erie. This was supposed to be in morning of the grangers, Vanderbilt, Reading, and Erie. This was supposed to be in consequence of the advance of the Bank of England rate and some fear that it might go higher.

The money market worked considerably easier to-day, rate falling to 3 per cent. at the close. The increased engagements of gold from the other side gave the builts here renewed course and they bought stocks in a spannodic manner whenever the selling pressure was removed, which gave the market its feverish aspect.

In the afternoon a much better feeling was apparent, and toward the last hour the upward movement assumed larger proportions, the best figures being generally reached toward the close. Reading was the great favorite, its transactions being about one-quarter of the total business done, and it was conspicuously wesk until toward noon. There were many rumors affoat, but the story of opposition to the plan of certain security bolders of the road seemed to have most effect. There was considerable ilquidation throughout the list, but it was generally neutralized by the good buying of the afternoon. Some encouragement was derived from the discussion of the New York Central statement and a further reduction in sterling exchange rates. The latter, however, are unsettled.

A period of duliness and steadiness gave way in the last hour to a renewal of the upward movement, and the market closed generally firm, at prices which in most cases are but slightly under the highest of the day. The total sales for the day were 516,457. The net result of the day's business is that prices in a majority of cases are small fractions lower as compared with last evening.

The following statement has been issued by R. Dune for. The hast has been issued by R. Dune for the parket of the content of the conte

The following statement has been a week of runsual excitement. The sharp decline in the stock market was forestandowed by the recent unhealthy advance in sentrities that do not secure, and in some of these the fail was from $20 to $57 per share. But fifteen other stocks lost $10 each per share, and the average price of active stocks, good and had, felt $8.30 per share from Dec. 4 to the lowest point on Wednesdy last, "Knocking the froth off the market," one broker called it. In that case there was a good deal of froth. Some recovery has since occurred, but it is yet too soon to determine whether bottom has been reached. It is surprising and creditable that thus far only one failure in the exchange has resulted from such a fall.

is surprising and creditable that thus far only one failure in the exchange has resulted from such a fall.

Money was artificially locked up beyond doubt, and the decline thus increased. The rate rose from 6 to 8 per cent, on Saurday to 10 per cent, as the lowest, and 185 per cent, as the highest on Wednesday. This difficulty has been rest by shipments from many interior points, Canadian banks sending $3,000,000, by the arrival of $1,400,000 on Thursday from France, and the shipment of $2,000,000, from London, and by the treasury's offer to prepay $5,000,000 interest. The advance in rate by the Bank of England is meant to check the outflow of gold, but the supply now in sight here and the shrinkage in speculative demands should prevent any stringency in money for commercial or industrial needs if Europe does not unload stocks. last December, to lay slege to the new commission.

It is also remarkable that the holders of the Caracas awards, who have so persistently maintained their validity and finality, seem now to be as anxious for the new commission as the disappointed claimants, probably in expectations that those awards, many of which have been recognized by Venezuela as just, will be confirmed and their payment enforced by our government.

Consistency requires Gen, Blanco to ratify the pending convention and send on his commissioner without further delay, but he may prefer to add to his success in evading obligations rather than to be consistent in fulfilling them. At all events, in view of its past history, the conduct of the Venezuelan government need not occasion surprise when the risks which a new commission involves are carefully considered.

Consul General Williams, of Havana, has returned to his post.

Consul General Porch's report on the coffee culture in Mexico, published in No. 71, will prove of much value to all interested in that product.

Office broke at Havre and has not recovered. Office broke at Havre and has not recovered. Exchanges outside New York still show that the volume of business at the north is very large, though some depression exists in parts of the south. Railroads have agreed to advance eastbound rates 5 cents on Dec. 29, and have large earnings already.

But while Wall street acrobatics do not yet affect general business, a continued depression might in two ways. Fallure to sell securities might check railroad building, from maxing, and other industries. Return of the large body of American stocks held abroad would cause heavy loss of gold and severe pressure. The weather-wise will watch for signs in these quarters. Thus far Europe sends gold and buys stocks.

The interstate commerce bill is thought dengerous by many investors, and its progress may cause unloading of securities. The issue of silver certificates increases, $2,000,000 more having been put out last week, while the treasury took in $1,500,000 more gold. Risks in stocks by individuals all over the country are likely to increase the number of commercial failures, already unusually large for the season. The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported, only two of which are show the average in number, which is also the case in Canada. Among the Transcontinental Railroads Causes Serious Loss to the United States

Boston, Dec. 17.—In the course of a called meeting of the Union Pacific railway directors Thursday Government Director Alexander inmeeting of the Union Pacific railway directors Thursday Government Director Alexander inquired of Fresident Adams why the government requirements for the first nine months of the present year, which were $7:57,000 in 1880, were estimated at only $500,000 during the current year. In reply, President Adams stated that this was due to the war in rates which had existed since February last among the transcontinents Ironda, and which had destroyed the profit on the whole transcontinental traffic of the year. The government requirements are based upon a percentage of the net earnings of aided lines, expecially the Union Pacific. These lines were originally built to do little close than transcontinental business. The business had formerly been confined to the Union and Central Facilic and the Panama routes, and had been a source of great profit. It was now divided among six routes, and the six had been a source of great profit. It was now divided among six routes, and the such an extent that the business had this year been done without any net profit at all. The not earnings of the Union Pacific is all therefore, during the current year, been derived aimost exclusively from tusiness delivered to its branch lines. But for this branch line business the amount to be paid to the government outder the Thurman act requirements would have been reduced to almost nothing, as shat act called for 25 per cent, of the net earnings of the Union Pacific division, and but for the business of the branch lines the Union Pacific division would have had but very small earnings. The security of the government how lies in the active development of that system the company must in future derive the means of meeting its obligations to the government.
